

Ripple Developments Ltd

Opportunity for a Buyer/Estimator Retail Display Equipment and Shopfitting

The Company:

Trading under the brands of Ripple and Pebble, Ripple Developments is a long established successful and highly respected retail display and interiors specialist. With a portfolio of leading brands and retailers, the organisation is driven by a dynamic team of talented individuals who constantly achieve winning display and shopfitting solutions. Ripple's USP includes industry leading creative and technical design capability, project management and extensive in house manufacturing and logistics facilities.

The Role:

Accountability for the cost effective and efficient operation of the estimating and procurement functions. To provide accurate cost estimates with a focus on winning business and controlling /reducing costs through the procurement process. To develop, manage and performance measure suppliers in the UK and globally and meet the needs required to satisfy all supply demands, influencing cost efficiencies, quality and deadlines.

The Person, skills and background

Has a successful retail display equipment and shopfitting industry background, with in depth knowledge and experience of UK and Global sourcing of display and shopfitting furniture, equipment and components

Proven history of shopfitting, project and batch production estimating

Excellent communication and interpersonal skills and a high level of competency in commercial purchasing and supply and contract management.

Proven negotiation skills with accountability for profit contribution.

Possesses creative and lateral thinking capability to contribute to the design and technical development process.

Submit up to date CV, references (or referees) and current remuneration/benefits to:

Nicola Cohoon (Company Secretary)
Ripple Developments Ltd,
Greenacres Road,
Oldham OL4 2AB